

PR. SERGE EBERSOLD (QUALIFICATIONS)

Qualification to lead research (habilitation à diriger la recherche) in social sciences delivered by the University of Strasbourg in January 2000. PhD in sociology delivered by the University of Strasbourg in 1991. ADRERUS price winner en 1992.

Work experiences

From September 2009: professor at the INSHEA (institut national supérieur de formation et de recherche pour les élèves handicapés et l'éducation adapté) :

- Head of the international research unit on special needs issues Research on inclusion policies at national at international level.
- Head of an international research on transition to work of SEN students enrolled in higher education
- Member of a research team on transition to VET in 7 EU countries
- Head of a research on access to culture of persons with disabilities
- Head a research on staff training development on SEN issues in higher education
- Head of a research on inclusive education policies and practices in France (1982-2011)
- Country review on development on inclusive education in Haiti, Mauritius, Morocco
- Co-director of a master degree on implementing inclusion and increasing persons with disabilities' participation

Main subjects taught :

- Disability sociology
- Inclusive education policies in OECD and non OECD countries
- International comparative analysis frameworks
- Implementing inclusion: strategies and practices

From 1-04-2006 to 31-08-09: Education analyst at the OECD

- Responsible for the project pathways for students with disabilities to tertiary education and to employment involving 9 OECD countries
- Country reviews on transition policies in participating countries
- Longitudinal study looking at good transition practices
- Case study identifying good transition strategies
- Country reviews on inclusive education policies in Gabon
- South Africa
- Central Asia

1993-2006: Senior lecturer at the University of Strasbourg

- co-director of the « Centre d'études et de recherches sur l'Intervention Sociale » 2000 - 2003.
- Responsible of the master degree « managing inclusion » 1995-2006
- Main subjects taught :
- Disability sociology
- Analysis Education, training and employment policies in France and in Europe
- Implementing inclusion: strategies and practices.

Expertise :

- OECD consultant 1995-2006 :
 - Author of « disability in higher education », OECD, Paris, 2004.
 - Contribution to « inclusion at work” OECD, Paris, 1999.
 - Participation to OECD conferences
- Inclusion of SEN students, Paris, October 1997
- Education and exclusion, Paris, 21-22 January, 1998 - “Indicators of system success – How is it possible to measure system changes towards better programs support e.g. inclusion –Balancing inputs, products and processes, Vancouver, 21-22 September 1998, - Disability in higher education, Stavanger , 15-19 June 2004 - « Inclusion policies in France towards severe disabled People: situations and trends », Yokohama, 2-4 march 2005 - ...
- Involvement in projects of the European agency on special needs education
 - Consultant on the project “Mapping the Implementation of Policy of Inclusive Education” aiming at defining indicators for analyzing inclusive education policies
 - Member of an expert team on policy analysis on SEN students’ access to vocational training in EU member
 - Collaboration with the European commission
 - Member of Helios II program, 1993-1996
 - Co-author of the report Definitions of disability in Europe : a comparative analysis , Univ. Brunel, September, 2002
 - Involvement in several EC programs fostering the education and employment of persons with disabilities
 - Involvement in the ICF revision process within the taskforce environment
 - Cooperation with the French government within the reform of French policies on disability issues
 - French, English and German fluent spoken and written